WASHOE COUNTY OFFICIAL PRESS

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1875.

CALIFORNIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention met yesterday at Sacramento, 3 p. m. There was a large attendance, and many spectators. It was called to order by Walter Van Dyke, who made a brief address. Sargent was elected Chairman on the 1st ballot, by a large majority, over Judge Beatty, of Sacramento. Marcus D. Boruck was elected Secretary. After a short recess the following Committees were announced: On Credentials Platform and Resolutions, on which Gorham has a place, and on permanent organization. The Convention adjourned till 8 p. m.

Up to ten o'clock last night no nominations had been made. At that time Sargent was addressing the Convention with a speech of great length. Hon. T. G. Phelps will undoubtedly be the nominee for Governor.

THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

The Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows of this State held their first annual communication at Winnemucca this week. The attendance of representatives was not very large, but the session was as harmonious and pleasant as it was possible for it to be. A large amount of business was transacted, among which was the reception of the reports of the Grand Patriarch and Grand Scribe, showing that branch of the Order to be in a flourishing condition throughout the State. Considerable very important legislation was had, among which was the adoption of a Constitution and By-laws for the government of the Grand Encampment, and a Constitution for Subordinate Encampments; also the unanimous adoption of the following preamble and resolution, which was introduced by G. W. Chedic, of Carson:

WHEREAS, Drunkenness is in some of the charges of Subordinate Lodges called one of the vilest of evils, and subversive of everything that is noble in man and a disgrace to the Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, By this Grand Encampment, that any member of a Subordinate Encampment in this jurisdiction who shall, upon trial, be convicted of using intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to neglect his family or business, shall be considered a common drunkard and shall be expelled from the Encampment.

SECRETARY BRISTOW AND FINNACE.

Secretary of the Treasury Bristow made a flying visit to Louisville, where on the 1st instant, he was given a reception by the Board of Trade. It was expected, of course, that he would make a speech, and he made it, but declined to reveal any of the secrets of the Department over which he presides. The national finances, about which the Board expected him to speak, was the very subject, he said, upon which he should remain silent. This much, however, he did consent to say:

In my judgment, there can be no return or real and solid prosperity until we build our financial system upon a sounder and surer basis. It must be based on money—upon that which is so recognized throughout the world; that which has an intrinsic value, and which must be used not only as a medium of exchange, but as a representative of values everywhere. We may have an apparent temporary prosperity, may inflate values and produce an abnormal activity, make one man rich and many others poor, by resorting to temporary expedients; but I repeat, substantial, enduring prosperity is to be reached only on the basis of a solid foundation of actual money.

NEW RAILROAD PROJECTS IN NEVADA.

The San Francisco Bulletin of a late date has the annexed upon the new railroads now building, in course of construction, and projected, in this State. The article is somewhat lengthy, but will prove interesting reading matter:

There are, it appears, strong hopes that the Virginia City and Umatilla (Oregon) Railroad project will be carried into effect. Surveys have been commenced for that portion of the road between Virginia City and Reno, and no engineering difficulties have so far presented themselves. The road will be a narrow-gauge, and it is intended to construct the section between Virginia and Reno, and ultimately to push the road northward into the heavily timbered belts of the Sierra Nevada and the agricultural valleys of Eastern Oregon. A bill was before the Nevada Legislature granting a right of way for this road, but it never could be got before the Assembly, owing, as was then alleged, to the influence of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company, which desired to keep out all competition. Since that time the company has been organized under the general law of the State, and shows signs of vitality. If, as is alleged, the project is backed by the firm of Flood & O'Brien it will not lack capital to become an accomplished fact, and it was asserted in the preamble to the bill which was before the Legislature that Oregon capitalists were ready to embark in the undertaking.

With the developments of mines on the Comstock the consumption of timber has become enormous. Immense tracts of the Sierra Nevada have been entirely denuded of forest trees, and the consumption is increasing. It will therefore become a necessity to seek other districts, and the first step in this direction is the construction of a railroad to the heavily timbered region to the northward of those where the present supply is obtained.

One of the strong contests in the recent session of the Nevada Legislature was over the bill granting a subsidy to the Battle Mountain and Austin Railroad upon a two-thirds vote of the people of Lander county. Acting Governor Adams vetoed the bill as unconstitutional because it was special legislation, but the promoters of the road, by continuous lobbying passed the bill over the veto. It has since transpired that the corporators of the company having taken the best legal advice, find that Acting Governor Adams was correct and that the bonds if issued would be valueless. This may be supposed to have at least effectively settled the subsidy question in Nevada. But the citizens of Austin and Reese river generally are finding that the road is a necessity for the development of their mining district, and have subscribed the money for a preliminary survey, intending to build the road.

The Eureka and Palisade narrow-gauge road is nearing completion, and projects are being discussed for continuing the road on to Belmont to connect with the new mining camp of Nye county. The one thing wanted to insure permanent prosperity in the mining camps of Nevada is said to be cheap transportation. Low grade ore is known to exist all over the State, but it cannot be worked because of the present high rates of transportation for fuel and other supplies. Narrow-gauge railroads meet this want. The Eureka and Palisade having proved successful, is therefore, encouraging the construction of other narrow-gauge roads in various sections of the State.

BULLION FOR COINAGE.—Superintendent Crawford, of the Carson Mint, recently received instructions from the head of the Department to purchase $1,500,000 of silver bullion for coinage. In pursuance thereof, he on Wednesday purchased that amount of Consolidated Virginia bullion, and about a month's yield of the bonanza will soon be in circulation in the form of trade dollars, fifty-cent, twenty-five and twenty-cent pieces.

Joe Hooker says he will respond to Sherman's strictures at the proper time. Fighting Joe has got his mad up. In his esteem, Thomas was the great General of the Army, Sherman's superior in every sense, and Farragut was the hero of the war.

Daniel Webster's library was sold in Boston Wednesday. It brought a fair price.

CONTINUED.—In the Police Court yesterday, Gilson, Judge, the case of the Indian who shot Dan Schaffer, at Verdi, was continued for additional testimony.

NOW COACH.—Hammond & Wilson have received another new coach for their Susanville line. They keep that road well stocked.

PEACHES.—These have made their appearance here. Cunningham received a choice lot yesterday.

PRETTY.—Frank & Myers' drug store has donned a holiday attire. "Cleanlines is next to Godliness."

THE GREAT SHOW.—To-day Queen's great circus and menagerie will exhibit in Reno. In the menagerie department many new and rare animals will be found, the attraction being the gentle-eyed giraffe, which is housed in an upholstered cage and petted like an only child. The animals also receiving much attention are the seven baby lions and the young elephant. The second tent is erected for the arena, and here will be found the crowd after giving the animals a careful inspection. This troupe is the best ever performing on the coast, and the programme will be sumersaulting on horseback by little Mollie Brown, daring and hazardous feats on the trapeze by Ashton and Macao, and the riding by Sebastian. One of the greatest features, however, will be the masterly bare-back riding of James Robinson, the champion rider of the world. No such feats were ever witnessed in the arena as performed by this great artist. The climax is capped by his son standing erect upon Mr. R.'s head. Fish, another brilliant rider
